RELEASING PROPERTY & EVIDENCE

March 15, 2024 | 1300 - 1500 EST

COURSE DESCRIPTION

- Property & Evidence personnel across the country are releasing hundreds of thousands of items every day. It is imperative that these personnel have the knowledge and skills necessary to ensure they are completing this process properly.
- Students will learn how to determine if items are eligible and approved for release, who they can be released to and the different ways items can be physically returned. Students will also learn the return process for speciality items like firearms, vehicles, medication and money and what to do if something is released that shouldn't have been.
- Students are encouraged to share their own experiences and processes for releases. This will allow for other agencies in close proximity to be more informed on what the procedures and laws are regarding releases in their area.
